INNOVATIONS FOR AI IN TRAVEL MARKETING
JACQUELYN BLACKWELL
Marketing/Sales
In this session, learn about the literal thousands of different ways AI can be implemented in your marketing process to help your team be more creative and more efficient. While AI has been a part of digital marketing for a long time, the new implications of ChatGPT and GPT-4 are really changing the game for us. Hear about new trends, new ways to use, and new platforms.

MAKING A CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM: MORALE, TEAMWORK & PRODUCTIVITY
FACILITATED BY MARK ROMIG | COACH JAY CLARK | JUSTIN VINCENT | RYAN SCHIMPF
Professional Development
Championship teams buy into the mission at every level and foster an intentionally created culture of success. Join these champions as you learn key insights for your team to thrive.

KNOW-MAKING THE YES SALE!
MARLIN WILLIAMS
Marketing/Sales
When your business relies on the success of your sales team, every effort must be made to strengthen the team and the team’s effectiveness. Being organized and efficient is a start, but what does it really take to get a YES out of your customers? Increasing each team member’s emotional intelligence, coaching them to be self-motivated, seasoning their communication skills, and giving them rewarding sales tips to put into practice will benefit the whole company. Participants will experience informative training and life-like scenarios that will ultimately aid them in understanding and furthering their goals as a member of your sales team.
WEDNESDAY, 12:15-1:30 P.M. - PARTNER SHOWCASE LUNCHEON
This tabletop tradeshow allows media partners to share information and network with fellow tourism professional attendees. Please register as an exhibitor online or contact Josie Evans at josie@louisianatravelassociation.org for more information.

WEDNESDAY, 12:15-1:30 P.M. TRAVEL COUNSELOR LUNCH & LEARN

WOULD YOU DO BUSINESS WITH YOU?
BOB PACANOVSKY
When was the last time you were a customer in your own state? Do you know what your customers see, touch, hear, and most importantly, feel when traveling in your state? That’s why it’s important to take a step back and become your customer so that you can ask yourself “Would YOU do business with YOU?” And we’ll do just that in this session. If there ever was a time to think and act like your customer, it is now, as your customers and prospects are looking at every part of your business.

WEDNESDAY, 1:45-3 P.M. - CONCURRENT BREAKOUT SESSIONS

Hear about new trends, new ways to use, and new platforms.

REAL TALK ON UNCONSCIOUS BIAS
LINDSAY LODRINI
Management/Service
During this session, we will tackle how to stop judging a book by its cover. Take part in this interactive session that peels back the layers of our own unconscious bias through the examination of names, images and life experiences that led to not hiring the right candidate. When we remove unconscious bias, we can focus solely on the skills and abilities of candidates to create a more diverse and accepting work environment.

THE SOCIAL NETWORK FOR FOODIES & COOKS
FACILITATED BY COUNCILMAN SCOTT WALKER | JAY DUCOTE | JORDAN BASHAM
Communications
Loaded with insight into the current scene, join these foodies and cooks to discover why the development of social media food culture can help a tourist destination draw new visitors.
DOUG BOURGEOS | Assistant Secretary | Louisiana Office of Tourism

Assistant Secretary Doug Bourgeois will cover the sales and marketing plan for the Louisiana Office of Tourism for the next 18 months, including key market events, shows and opportunities for industry partnership. In addition, get a preview of how your organization can participate with Liz Bittner (Travel South USA) on the state’s investment for Tourism Exchange USA – a partnership with Travel South and Brand USA to bring Louisiana’s unique travel experiences to the world.

WEDNESDAY, 6:30-9:30 P.M. - FEED YOUR SOUL: FOOD OF THE SEVEN NATIONS (OPTIONAL EVENT)

Baton Rouge’s own Chef John Folse will treat guests to a delicious multi-course meal as they enjoy the picturesque sunset over the Mississippi River at The Estuary. In a fitting tribute to the Capital City’s exploding culinary scene, Folse will personally present each course. You don’t want to miss the food or legendary tales from the renowned restaurateur, cookbook author and TV host! Register for Optional Event while registering for Summit.

THURSDAY, 10:30-11:45 A.M. - CONCURRENT BREAKOUT SESSIONS

THE FIVE ESSENTIAL LAWS OF HOSPITALITY

BOB PACANOVSKY
Communications

Providing customer service is necessary as it brings people to your business. Hospitality, however, is essential, as it brings your customers back, increases your loyalty, retention, and revenue. Learn why most people forget about ordinary service but always remember the hospitality shown to them.

When this happens, you create your organization’s storytellers (or Brand Ambassadors) who can’t wait to tell others about their experiences with your organization and people.

LETTING LOUISIANA SHINE THROUGH LITTER PREVENTION

SUSAN RUSSELL
Communications

In this session, hear about the latest efforts from Keep Louisiana Beautiful, the state’s anti-litter and community improvement organization. With momentum from a very successful Love the Boot Week, and “Let Louisiana Shine” media campaign, KLB expands to offer a Clean Biz Partnership program and social media toolkits so you can help beautify your community to make it more welcoming to visitors.
