TRAILS, LAKES, CAMPING & FISHING

Buhlow Lake Recreation Area

Fort Buhlow Lake is a popular destination for various disc golf, boating, racing, fishing, and recreational activities. You can enter the recreation area off of Highway 71 in Pineville, past the Pineville airport.

Cotile Lake Recreation Area

There is a large area cleared and zoned for swimming with complete bath house facilities nearby. There is a water skiing area that is cleared and snagged for safety of the skiers. There is also space available for campers, and picnic and camping areas. rppj.com/cotile-lake-recreation

Indian Creek Recreational Area

Located between I-49 and US Hwy 165, it encompasses 100 acres of developed recreation facilities, 250 acres of primitive camping area, and the 2,250-acre Indian Creek Lake. The area contains over 100 campsites with water and electricity, 3 beach areas, 5 bathrooms, laundry facilities, playground equipment, boat launch, wi-fi (in RV area), and a covered pavilion for rental. daf.state.la.us/about/indian-creek-recreation-area/

Kisatchie National Forest and Kincaid Lake

Enjoy hiking, biking, horseback, ATV, and multi-use trails in the Kisatchie National Forest, as well camping areas, beaches, piers, and historic sites. fs.usda.gov

Solomon Northup Trail

The Northup Trail allows visitors to follow the path of Solomon Northup during his 12 years as a slave in central Louisiana. In addition to the trail stops, you will also see historic sites, registered historic houses, Indian mounds, museums, churches and cemeteries, farms, shops, eateries, and accommodations along the route. byways.explorelouisiana.com/byway/northup-trail

The Red River

Situated in the heart of the South, the Red River region is accessible to the entire Mississippi River system and Intracoastal Waterway. It also sits amidst a Louisiana Highway system that includes east-west interstate highways I-10 and I-20, as well as north-south Interstate highways I-49, I-55 and I-59. redriverwaterway.com

Valentine Lake Recreation Complex

The Valentine Lake Recreation Complex has 14 campsites, some along the picturesque lake shore, and provides a more primitive camping experience. Valentine Lake's trails connecting to the 25-mile long Wild Azalea Trail, the longest hiking trail in the state. Paddling is allowed, but power boats are prohibited. fs.usda.gov

Wild Azalea Trail

Hike the Wild Azalea Trail - Louisiana's longest hiking trail at 31 miles long. The Wild Azalea Trail begins on Caster Plunge Road in Woodworth. Parking is available at the Woodworth Cemetery parking lot located on Caster Plunge Road. The entire trail can be hiked in 16 hours, and there are shelters, a recreation area for camping and drinking water facilities along the trail.

With over 80 locally-owned unique shopping destinations, there's something you can't live without, and it's right here in central Louisiana. Explore the plant nursery capital of Louisiana in Forest Hill and shop the one-of-a-kind items in the Downtown Arts District or Antique Row in Alexandria.

The Alexandria Museum of Art and River Oaks Square Arts Center both have art for sale, tax-free. Our artisans also have creations in boutiques throughout the area.

There are over 20 locally-owned clothing boutiques in the area, including a men's atelier named "One of Esquire's 100 Best." Each shop has its own niche: formal wear, western, children's, fitness and more.

Find something absolutely one-of-a-kind at one of our antique stores or Flea Markets, where we have everything from fine antiques to thrifty treasures.
