Shreveport-Bossier's moniker is Sportsman's Paradise and for good reason. The destination is a haven for adventure seekers and people who enjoy outdoor activities. The most popular outdoor activity - fishing - has attracted the elite Bassmaster Classic and FLW Forrest Wood Cup tournaments. For recreational purposes, the Red River offers kayaking, cruising and walking trails. Other outdoor activities include a waterpark, skydiving, archery, camping, golfing, horseback riding, and more. Explore Sportsman's Paradise for yourself and let the outdoor lover in you fall in love all over again.

THE BIRD STUDY GROUP

The Bird Study Group is a local nonprofit specializing in the preservation, research and enjoyment of bird watching. Founded in 1954, members are active bird watchers who take field trips to study various bird species. The most common birds in Shreveport-Bossier can be found around C. Bickham Dickson Park, Red River National Wildlife Refuge, Red River, Cross Lake, Clyde Fant Parkway, and Cypress Black Bayou. Hundreds of birds migrate to the area throughout the year including:

NATIVE BIRDS:

- Bewick's Wren
- Grasshopper Sparrows
- Hummingbirds
- Pelicans
- White Winged Doves
- Woodpeckers

MIGRATORY BIRDS:

- Bald Eagles
- Jaegers
- Juncos
- Tropical Parulas
- Vermillion Flycatchers
- Western Kingbirds

For more information about the field trips of The Bird Study Group, visit www.birdstudygroup.org.
