Music

SHREVEPORT-BOSSIER'S MUSIC ROOTS RUN DEEP.

If you want to be entertained, there is no shortage of options. Whether it's a jazz date night or an evening of rock with friends, Shreveport-Bossier sets the stage for unforgettable musical experiences.

The beautiful and iconic Municipal Auditorium on Elvis Presley Avenue has a storied history. The Art Deco building was the birthplace of the Louisiana Hayride, a radio show heard far and wide in the 1940s and '50s. Shreveport's own Hank Williams performed his hits "Jambalaya" and "Lovesick Blues" on the show. The Hayride, the Municipal and Shreveport-Bossier are credited with launching many music careers, including "The King of Rock 'N Roll," Elvis Presley and Shreveport native, James Burton, who served as guitarist and band leader for Elvis until the King passed in 1977.

Live music can be found throughout the week at various restaurants such as Noble Savage Tavern in downtown Shreveport and Sweet Caroline's Dueling Piano Bar at the Louisiana Boardwalk Outlets. Large outdoor venues like Hurricane Alley in the East Bank Arts District and The Stage at Silver Star in north Bossier often bring both seasoned professionals and emerging talents to the area.

Shreveport-Bossier's music festival scene is robust and known to unite local and world-renowned artists at popular events such as Prize Foundation's Music Fest, Red River Revel and Highland Jazz & Blues Festival. Read more about festivals on page 54.

Seventh Tap East Bank

Beer

LOVE CRAFT BEER?

Shreveport-Bossier is home to four acclaimed craft brewery locations, some even offer tasting rooms and brewery tours. Flying Heart Brewing & Pub is known for fresh pizza, pretzels, and patio games for all ages. Families often spend evenings enjoying the live music and beer selections. Seltzer-lovers of the friend group fall in love with the selection at Seventh Tap East Bank Taproom. The fruited sours, lagers, and seltzers are all brewed locally and pair excellently with the mouthwatering smash burgers served at this location, which sits next door to Hurricane Alley where live music is found almost daily. Flying Heart and Seventh Tap East Bank are in the East Bank Arts District in Bossier City.

Seventh Tap Brewing Project has another location near the Highland area in Shreveport. This location is a popular venue for events and music shows of various sizes. The favored drink options are available at this location, in addition to pop-up food options. Great Raft Brewing is also located in this Highland area, and was one of the first breweries to establish in Shreveport-Bossier. Great Raft is home to the iconic 318 Golden Ale, and a line of signature brews. Dripp Hot Chicken resides inside Great Raft for a delicious meal option.

Art & HISTORY

INSPIRATION AROUND EVERY CORNER.

The art scene in Shreveport-Bossier is as vibrant and diverse as the people who call it home. Art is everywhere, from the cutting-edge contemporary exhibits at Artspace “the fine arts center” to the classic Louisiana history dioramas at the Louisiana State Exhibit Museum and the iconic American and European masterpieces at the R.W. Norton Art Gallery. Be sure to keep an eye out for the city’s many public murals, which transform streets into open-air galleries, adding a layer of artistic narrative to every corner. The arts are widely supported throughout the community by multiple organizations such as the Shreveport Regional Arts Council, Bossier Arts Council and Sanctuary Glass Studios where visitors can take a glass-blowing class to create a one-of-a-kind masterpiece.

A RICHLY ROOTED HISTORY ON THE MIGHTY RED RIVER.

Shreveport-Bossier's past whispers from its landmarks. Antioch Baptist Church, the city's first Black church, stands tall, a testament to resilience. The Municipal Auditorium, home of the legendary Louisiana Hayride stage that first introduced Elvis Presley to the world, still echoes with legends. Oakland Cemetery, with its Civil War soldiers, and Star Cemetery, the resting place of early Black leaders, offer quiet histories to explore. At the Municipal Auditorium, snap an Insta-worthy selfie with statues of blues icon Huddie "Leadbelly" Ledbetter and the King himself, Elvis Presley.

Festivals

HERE IN SHREVEPORT-BOSSIER WE LIVE EVERY DAY LIKE IT'S A FESTIVAL.

It often is. We have so many reasons to celebrate, some days we don't even need one. Shreveport-Bossier is home to more than 60 of Louisiana's 400+ festivals. Just about any time of year, you'll find food, fun and of course, music.

Kick the year off with Louisiana's #1 festival and come enjoy Mardi Gras — Shreveport-Bossier style. Our parades are for all ages!

Celebrate the start of summer with a huge plate of crawfish at Mudbug Madness, a three-day Cajun festival featuring mouthwatering cuisine and festive music. The Red River Balloon Rally fills the sky in July with colorful hot air balloons, offering breathtaking views and family-friendly fun.

Stroll the tents filled with artists from around the nation and their diverse artwork at Red River Revel in the fall. The State Fair of Louisiana can guarantee food that is delicious, fried and served on a stick to ensure your throwing hand is free to win at any carnival game. Then wrap up the year when winter comes and load up your sleigh for Holidays on the Red, a series of events that include jolly fun for all ages, from firework shows to a wonderland of lights.

WALTER B. JACOBS NATURE PARK MEMORIAL

Explore an easy 1.8-mile loop trail near Blanchard. Ideal for birding, hiking and running, Walter B. Jacobs is a tranquil escape into nature's embrace.

Boom OR BUST BYWAY

DISCOVER LOUISIANA'S VIBRANT HERITAGE UP CLOSE ON THE BOOM OR BUST BYWAY.

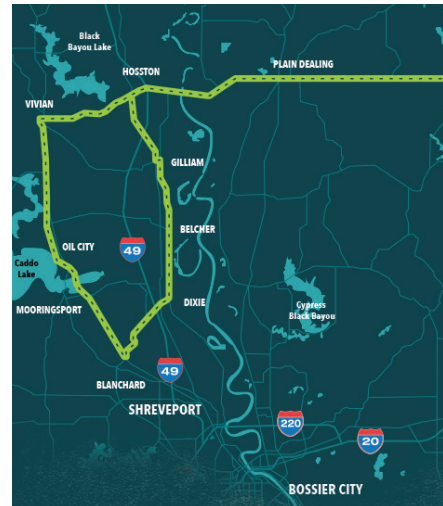

Slow down, take the back roads and make some memories while you explore the small towns along this 136-mile scenic byway.

There are biking paths, tranquil fishing spots, charming antique shops and cozy local diners. This journey is perfect for families, retirees and young adventurers to get off the beaten path and inhale the outdoors. You'll see mysterious bayous, shady forests and rich, productive farmland where the Caddo tribe once inhabited. During summertime, the tall sunflower fields are beautifully blinding with shades of gold, making for a picture-perfect backdrop.

Detour to one of the many quaint local diners along the route and dig into plates of fried chicken, catfish or chicken fried steak with green beans, okra, sweet potatoes and cornbread. You'll discover hidden treasures in the shops and fascinating history in the museums.

The Boom or Bust Byway is a story that unfolds as you travel. You will see evidence of the economic booms and busts of northwest Louisiana, much of it due to the oil and gas industry. The communities here have a history of resilience and innovation as they transformed their way of living through the ups and downs. The route shares many fascinating stories of the unbridled American spirit.

With the state parks, national wildlife management areas, refuges, forest and recreational areas, the Boom or Bust Byway offers a robust outdoor recreation opportunity for camping, boating, tubing, fishing, bird watching, skiing, canoeing, kayaking, wildlife viewing, hiking, biking, picnicking and just simply enjoying the great outdoors to commune with nature.

Neighborhoods

DOWNTOWN SHREVEPORT

Downtown's vibrancy is defined by riverfront casinos, dynamic art exhibits and the iconic Festival Plaza, where events like the Red River Revel and the Shreveport Farmers' Market are hosted. Sci-Port and the Shreveport Aquarium delight both the young and young at heart. Robinson Film Center and Abby Singer's Bistro offer the perfect blend of film and fine dining.

BOSSIER RIVERFRONT

Stroll along the riverfront, where the Louisiana Boardwalk offers a premier shopping, dining and entertainment experience. Perfectly situated at the heart of Shreveport-Bossier, this area is a gateway to two bustling entertainment districts and four thrilling casinos, all within a convenient two-mile radius.

EAST BANK DISTRICT

Escape the Rougarou and chill with a snoball at Streetcar Station. Sip brews at Flying Heart Brewery and savor bites at Frozen Pirogue and BeauJax Craffthouse. Feel the groove at Hurricane Alley and aim for excitement with axe throwing at Bayou Axe.

HIGHLAND DISTRICT

In Shreveport's most diverse neighborhood, expect the unexpected. Explore historic homes turned businesses and join the fun at the unique Krewe of Highland Mardi Gras parade. Admire the charm of Colonial Revival, Queen Anne and bungalow/craftsman homes dating to 1875. Savor a meal at Marilyn's Place or Ki' Mexico, two beloved spots by locals.

SOUTH HIGHLAND

As the most historic neighborhood of Shreveport, many beautiful homes and vast gardens can be seen while driving through the area. Residents often walk to nearby, local businesses like Rhino Coffee Uptown, Bistro To Go and Superior Steakhouse.

NORTH BOSSIER

Embrace the charm of this growing area along Airline Drive, where rustic Louisiana comes to life. Uncover hidden boutiques, cozy eateries and countryside homes. Nearby, enjoy the tranquility of Benton and Cypress Black Bayou Park.

CENTRAL BOSSIER

Experience culinary excellence at 2Johns Steak and Seafood, or Ralph & Kacoo's where Louisiana seafood has been served for over 40 years. Shop for Mardi Gras souvenirs at Tubbs Hardware and Cajun Gifts. Treat yourself to one of the many retail therapy at locally owned boutiques.

SOUTH BOSSIER

A boulevard away from central Bossier's excitement and a bridge away from Shreveport's shopping hub, you'll find top-tier entertainment at Brookshire Grocery Arena and the serene trails of the Red River Wildlife Refuge. Visit the Barksdale Air Force Base for air shows and mud runs or venture east to discover O.F.F. Limits Paintball in Elm Grove and the historic Taylortown Reception Hall, a beloved wedding venue on the edge of Bossier City.

NORTH SHREVEPORT

North Shreveport's main artery is North Market Street. Savor the flavors of Taylor's Catering, a beloved soul food restaurant with 20 years of tradition. Drive farther north and the road becomes Louisiana Highway 1 which leads to the National Scenic Boom or Bust Byway where you'll encounter charming rural attractions, RV parks, historic landmarks and more.

SOUTHEAST SHREVEPORT

Prominent neighborhoods like Broadmoor, Shreve Island and Shreve City shape this area. Home to Louisiana State University Shreveport, it's a hub for retail giants, local eateries and the upscale Shoppes at Bellemead.

WEST SHREVEPORT

Home to the Shreveport Regional Airport, this area invites you to savor year-round attractions. Dine with a view at Orlandeaux's Café on Cross Lake. See alligators in action at Gators and Friends Adventure Park and explore the beauty of the American Rose Center, the nation's largest rose park.
